

ICLRS Religious Freedom Discussion Series

Furthering the fundamental right to religious freedom is a vital cause with immeasurable benefits. The need to have thoughtful, dedicated individuals active in the promotion of these principles continues to grow.

Accordingly, the International Center for Law and Religion Studies and the Community Service and Outreach Committee of the J. Reuben Clark Law Society are pleased to announce the Religious Freedom Discussion Series--a bi-monthly forum led by globally recognized religious freedom experts. Dates, times and speakers are outlined below. The discussions will be broadcast live from the J. Reuben Clark Law School and will be available for subsequent viewing on line. Further details about topics and viewing links will be provided in advance of each individual session.

We invite you to join the ranks of those who are actively supporting the cause of religious freedom and look forward to your participation!
