

PROFESSOR PETER EDGE

Professor Peter Edge is a member of the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Oxford Brookes University. His principal interests are the interaction of law and religion in contemporary plural jurisdictions, with a particular emphasis on the law of the United Kingdom, the European Union, and the United States. The issues span a wide range of legal topics, from employment law to the sentencing of religious offenders; from the establishment of the Church of England to food and grooming requirements.

One of Professor Edge's projects, funded by the Economic and Social Research Council, investigated religious representation in the Manx legislature, the Tynwald (the legislature of the Isle of Man). This contributed to the political debate on the future of the Lord Bishop of Sodor and Man, as well as to the academic study of religious representation globally.

Recent publications

- (with Corrywright, D.) (2011). Including religion: reflections on legal, religious and social implications of the developing ceremonial law of marriage and civil partnership. Journal of Contemporary Religion. (1)
- (2010). Hard law and soft power: counter-terrorism, the power of sacred places, and the establishment of an Anglican Islam. Rutgers Journal of Law & Religion. (2)
- (2009). Unsympathetic magic: charitable status and magic practice in the United Kingdom. . Carolina UP
- (with Bakalis, C.) (2009). Taking due account of religion in sentencing. Legal Studies. (3)
- (2006). The development of the Lord Bishop's role in the Manx Tynwald. Journal of Ecclesiastical History. (3)
- (2002). Naturalism and neutrality: Fairly trying miraculous claims in English courts. Journal of Church and State. (3)
- (with Loughrey, J) (2001). Religious charities and the juridification of the Charity Commission. Legal Studies. (1)
- (1998). The European Court of human rights and religious rights. International and Comparative Law Quarterly. (3)

To view all of Professor Edge's 5 books, 5 chapters, and more than 50 articles and conference papers see his website at <http://www.law.brookes.ac.uk/staff/academic/prof1.asp?ID=88>.